

I oppose more media consolidation. On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.

The independence and local nature of radio and television are essential for those services to give their best to the public.

Sincerely,

PAG